

EXTRA HELP

Each member of the professional staff shall be on duty before and after regular school hours long enough to plan and to carry out individual professional responsibilities. The highest priority of teachers during such hours is that of offering special help to the individual student in their classes.

First Reading: June 3, 2003

Second Reading and Approval: July 8, 2003